

BOWEN ISLAND MUNICIPALITY

BYLAW NO. 25, 2000

A bylaw to ensure that buildings are numbered conspicuously pursuant to the Local Government Act.

WHEREAS Bowen Island Municipality proposes to pass a bylaw establishing building numbering on Bowen Island;

AND WHEREAS, pursuant to section 530 of the Local Government Act, Council is empowered to regulate the assignment of building or structure numbers;

AND WHEREAS the Council of Bowen Island Municipality deems it desirable to regulate the assigning, sizing, and placing of numbers on buildings and structures to ensure that emergency vehicles can quickly and easily locate a building and/or a dwelling unit.

The Council for Bowen Island Municipality ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

1. This bylaw may be cited as “Bowen Island Municipality Building Numbering Regulatory Bylaw No. 25, 2000”.
2. In this Bylaw, unless the context otherwise requires, “number” includes “numbers” and “series of numbers”.
3. All buildings and dwelling units on Bowen Island shall be assigned a number by the Bowen Island Municipality. The assigned number shall be logical from the perspective of emergency personnel, enabling them to quickly locate a building or a dwelling unit.
4. If a building or a dwelling unit has been assigned a number in the past that is determined by the Bowen Island Municipality to be confusing or illogical in nature from the perspective of emergency personnel, Bowen Island Municipality in consultation with the owner shall re-assign the number for that building or dwelling.
 - a) The property owner is obligated to change the number of the building or dwelling unit to correspond with the re-assigned number.
 - b) Bowen Island Municipality is not liable or responsible for any costs or hardships that may be incurred by the property owner due to the re-assignment of the building or dwelling unit number.
5. Every owner or occupier of a building or dwelling unit, which has been assigned or re-assigned a number, shall:

- a) Affix or cause to be affixed the assigned or re-assigned number in a conspicuous place on the outside of the building or dwelling unit or at the entrance to the property;
 - b) If the building is set so far back from the road that the affixed number on the building is not easily visible from the road, affix the number (along with a directional arrow pointing in the direction of the building) to a sign located at the junction of the road and the driveway or path which leads to the building so that the affixed number is visible from a moving vehicle on the road;
 - c) Ensure that the affixed number is not less than ten (10) centimetres in height, and shall be of a dark colour where placed on a light background, and of a light colour where placed on a dark background;
 - d) In the instance that a building is accessible only by water, the number shall be affixed so that the number is easily visible from an approaching vessel, such as by the dock or other mooring facility.
6. At the discretion of Bowen Island Municipality, a site plan may be required to be posted at the entrance of a complex that may contain more than one building or dwelling unit.
- a) The site plan shall show the location of all buildings, dwelling units, access roads and fire hydrants, as well as showing the number assigned to every building and dwelling unit pursuant to this Bylaw; and
 - b) The Municipality shall take into account the complexity of the development when considering the requirement to have a site plan posted.
7. No property owner which has a building or a dwelling unit on the property shall display or cause to be displayed a number other than the number assigned or re-assigned by Bowen Island Municipality.
8. The property owner may apply to change all or part of the assigned or re-assigned number for a building or dwelling unit on his property by making application to Bowen Island Municipality for each digit of a number to be changed. The cost for the application shall apply as follows:

Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) for the initial digit

Forty Dollars ($40.00) for each subsequent digit

If it is determined by Bowen Island Municipality that such application for change of digits of a number cannot be granted, the applicant shall receive a refund of the monies paid.

10. (a) Any person who violates the provision of this Bylaw is guilty of an offence and is liable to a penalty not exceeding Fifty Dollars ($50.00).

(b) Where an owner or occupier fails to affix a number as required by this bylaw Bowen Island Municipality may affix the number at the entrance to the property and recover the cost of so doing from the owner.

11. If a court of competent jurisdiction should declare any section or part of a section of this bylaw to be invalid, such section or part of a section shall not be construed as having persuaded or influenced Council to pass the remainder of the bylaw and it is hereby declared that the remainder of the bylaw shall be valid and shall remain in force.

12. "Greater Vancouver Regional District Building Numbering Regulatory Bylaw No. 936, 1999" and "GVRD Electoral Area "C" Numbering of Buildings Establishment Bylaw No. 663, 1990" are hereby repealed.
